SOUVENIR PROGRAM

LiUNA!

Local 120

The Indiana Golden Gloves would like to thank the Laborers International Union Local 120 for their generous sponsorship of the 2019 Indiana Golden Gloves State Tournament. Their support not only helps fund the tournament, it furthers the goal of instilling a strong work ethic and goal orientation in the young men and women who participate in the competition.

Thank You Once Again Local #120

For more information about becoming a laborer with LiUNA Local 120 or to apply, visit www.liunabuildsindiana.org. See also www.Laborers120.com.

LiUNA Local 120 would like to remind everyone to please drive safely in Construction Work Zones.

National Team Members in the Ring

USA National Team member, Stephanie Malone, boxed in the 2018 Indiana Golden Gloves fighter cornered by Mikel Jones from her hometown of Louisville. Malone joined Indiana's Open Team Champions in traveling to the National Tournament of Champions in Omaha, Nebraska. 2018 marked the first time in the tournament's nearly 100 year history that female boxers were welcomed to share the ring. Malone won her first fight and lost a tough split decision in her second. (Photo by Rebecca Townsend)

Pre-Tournament Hype With Sugar Ray Seales

*The Olympic Gold Champion and retired pro boxer now coaches with IBG.
Here are some of his thoughts ahead of the 2019 Golden Gloves.*

"I use two words in my game: focus and listen. Focus on what you're doing and listen how to get it done.

I boxed 19 years. I had 430 fights. I lost 19. I had over 200 knockouts. It's what I love to do. It's my game.

It's not the dog that's in the fight. It's the fight that's in the dog.

Now remember this: A chihuahua can beat a pitbull. It's who is going to grab who first. I don't like seconds. I'm a first-place deal.

The greatest of all time (Muhammad Ali) said to me in an autograph, 'Service to others is the rent we pay for our room in heaven.' If we don't give, we don't get.

The Lord said in heaven there are many mansions and one has your name on it, but the only way you're going to get there is if you provide a service for someone. You don't have to reach in your pocket and give any money: a pat on the shoulder, a nice word and a good morning...

(Regarding the 2019 Indiana Golden Gloves tournament...) We're gonna win again. We won five in a row and we're gonna win a sixth one. Why? Because we understand that the only way we're gonna get there is to pay attention. We gotta focus and listen. Focus on what you're doing and listen how to get it done. You all come see me. I know what it is."

Second Place Team

Second Place honors in 2018 went to Louisville TKO.

Third Place Team

Third-place honors in the 2018 State Tournament went to DeMotte Boxing.

You can do that!

Undoubtedly, there are many fans here tonight watching these fine young men and women doing battle in the ring and saying to themselves, “I can do that! I can be a Golden Gloves fighter, but where do I start?” This guide will help any potential “Glover” on the road to next year’s tournament.

Who can be a Golden Gloves Boxer?

ELIGIBILITY: The Indiana Golden Gloves Boxing Tournament is open to all Indiana residents between ages 18 and 40 who are in good health and have never boxed professionally.

Where do I fit In?

DIVISIONS: The Golden Gloves groups fighters by the amount of experience each fighter brings to the tournament:

Sub-Novice: Ages 18 - 21 years old with less than five fights

Jr. Open: Ages 22 - 40 years old with less than four fights

Novice: Ages 18 - 40 years old with four or more fights or having won a Sub-Novice title

Open: Ages 18 - 40 years old with five or more fights or having won a Novice or Jr. Open title

Where do I go for training?

TRAINING: The State of Indiana is blessed with many fine boxing clubs, coaches and trainers (see list on page 14). These men and women provide a great source of talent and experience to boxers around the state, helping to teach, train and evaluate skill levels.

VOLUNTEERING: Volunteers are always welcome. Those who would like to help out with any aspect of boxing: trainers, judges, referees, are urged to call and offer support.

Thanks

Indiana Golden Gloves is grateful to all of the clubs and coaches responsible for the success of the organization. They are the foundation upon which the program is built. The men and women of the clubs put in countless hours and often their own money to help the young people become better citizens in addition to learning how to box. We thank you for your contributions.

Anyone interested in learning about boxing or teaching the sport should contact one of the following clubs for more information. All ages are welcome to participate in either the Junior or Senior Golden Gloves programs.

* The Indiana Golden Gloves is 1 of 30 Golden Glove Franchises nation wide. It includes Louisville, Lexington and the Owensboro, Kentucky area. While the majority of the state falls within the borders of the Indiana franchise, Fort Wayne boxes with Toledo Golden Gloves and Chicago Golden Gloves covers Lake and Porter counties.

Scenes from the Ring

SAFETY IN BOXING

Safety is the number one issue in amateur boxing and the following rules have been put in place to assure that the athlete is in the safest environment possible.

- A pre and post physical is required of all competitors.
- Competition cannot be conducted without a physician (MD or DO) at ringside.
- A boxer cannot compete more than once in 12 hours or twice on any given day.
- A boxer must weigh-in each day they compete.
- An amateur boxer is trained with safety in mind.
- Amateur boxing is scored on a basis of points for contact with a scoring area, not for the severity of the blow.
- Headgear is worn and required for all contestants.
- 10 and 12 oz. gloves are used in amateur boxing, which provides more padding and thus more protection.
- Length and number of rounds are determined by age.
- The third set of steps was designed so if need be a physician can get to a boxer without delay. The steps are located in the physician's corner.
- Oxygen, along with a stretcher, is required to be placed under the ring.
- Each athlete has a passbook to identify their boxing history so safer matches can be made.
- An eight count is given when a boxer receives a hard blow so they can be observed to see if they should continue to compete.
- Restriction affidavits are issued when a bout is stopped due to a head blow. The boxer may be restricted for 30, 60, 90 days or permanently, depending on the severity of the incident or the accumulation of restrictions issued.
- Referees are required to be certified to help insure a safer environment.
- Coach's certification increases the knowledge of the coach in the area of safety.
- The ring has four ropes and approved padding for added safety.
- The Physician, referee, coach or the athlete can stop a bout at any time.

Golden Gloves History

Though boxers have faced off at the Golden Gloves Tournament without interruption for 91 years (since 1928), Golden Gloves was truly born in 1923 when Arch Ward, sports editor of the Chicago Tribune, organized the tournament as a protest of political forces preventing the practice of pugilism.

Protestors succeeded in closing down a boxing exhibition hosted by the Illinois Naval Academy and the Illinois legislature had banned the sport for decades when Ward announced the Tribune's tournament initiative. The first Golden Gloves tournament ran for six nights (three nights longer than originally planned) and showcased 424 boxers. Net proceeds of $6,000 were donated to a fund for disabled war veterans. Despite bitter opposition from organizations such as the National Reform Association and the Law and Order League, an injunction prevented interference. As a program from the 1981 National Golden Gloves Tournament of Champions recounted, "thus boxing in Illinois was on its way back."

Illinois voters rescinded the boxing prohibition in 1926. The best of the Big Apple and the Windy City's amateur boxers first faced off in the Golden Gloves Tournament of Champions on March 24, 1928 in the old Coliseum. Soon the tournament grew into include fighters from around the country.

Chicago hosted the tournament until the Tribune discontinued its sponsorship following the 1963 series. Under the leadership of Albuquerque, New Mexico's Stan Gallup, 32 regional franchises then banded together and became Golden Gloves of America, Inc. The collective has organized the National Golden Gloves Tournament of Champions each year since 1964.

Some of boxing's greatest legends have launched their careers with Golden Gloves championships, including Muhammed Ali and Joe Lewis.

Gamble for the Greater Good

When patrons of the Indiana Golden Gloves purchase 50-50 raffle tickets, those dollars support scholarship opportunities for some of the region's most outstanding student boxers. Since 1977, Indiana has awarded at least 118 scholarships. So go ahead, buy a ticket. You may walk away with a few hundred dollars — and you will definitely help support local kids' education.

Above: "Stormin' Norman Goins, Indiana's 132-class champion, who went on to win the 1970 national championship and earned a 43% knock-out percentage in his 46-bout pro career, drew a 50-50 winner during an opening night raffle of the 2019 Indiana Golden Gloves.

Facts, Figures

Indiana Golden Gloves is celebrating its 86th birthday this year. The franchise was born in 1933, with 136 boxers competing in Tomlinson Hall. In 1934, the show moved to the Northside Armory, now Tyndall Armory. Indiana Central (now the University of Indianapolis), Market Square Arena, the Convention Center and the State Fairgrounds have also hosted the event.

Indiana finished third, third and second in the national tournament in the early 1970s. In the run, four Hoosier boxers won national titles. Marvin Johnson, a three-time world champion, was a two-time winner while Norman Goins and Samy NeSmith each won a single crown.

Another world champion also wore Indiana colors. Aaron Pryor won a national Gloves title in 1976 when Cincinnati boxers were members of the Indiana team.
